

Toad Crossing Location Record Sheet

Thank you for contacting the Sussex Amphibian and Reptile group. We are always keen to record and monitor locations for toad crossings. By completing the information below, you will enable us to build up a more detailed picture of where toad crossings are taking place in Sussex. We are also keen to find out if the toad crossing is supported by an active group of volunteers to aid the crossing and raise awareness to motorists and other local people.

Contact Name.

Telephone:

Email:

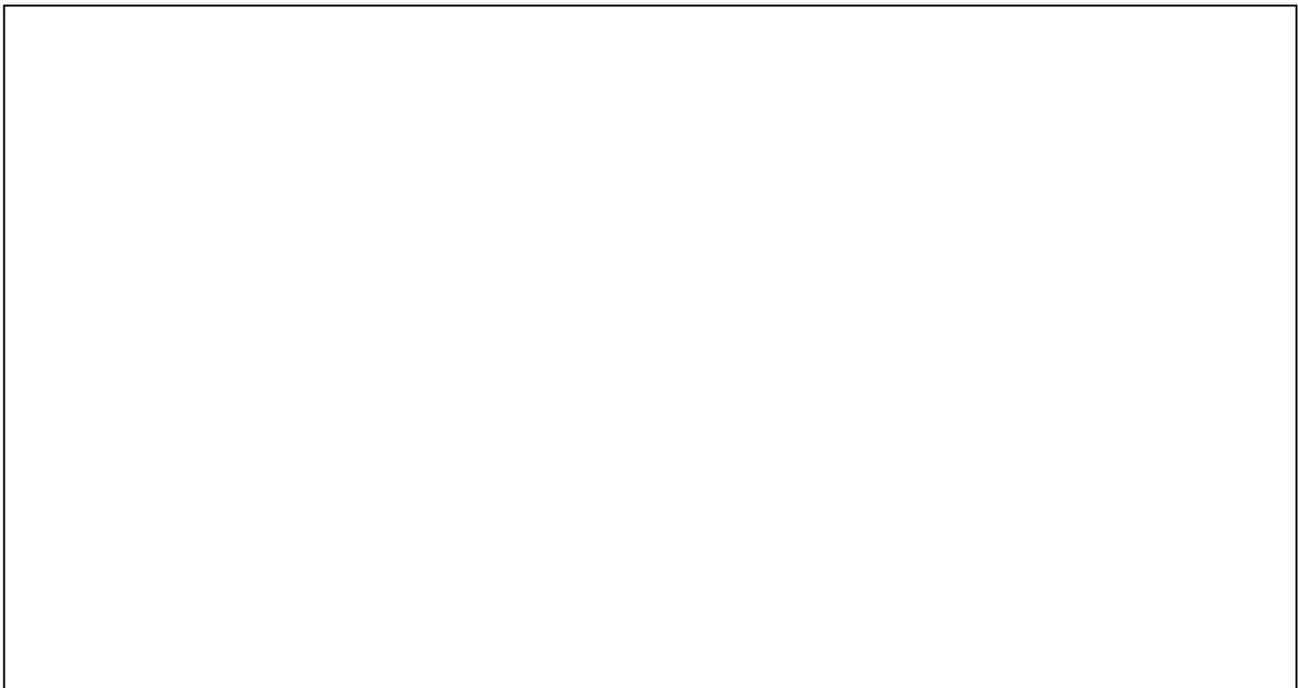

Information about the toad crossing point

Name of crossing location
Grid Reference of crossing location
Approximate date of last crossing
Road name that is being crossed i.e B123 OR CLAPPERS LANE
Direction of movement
Approximate width of migration crossing i.e 5 metres
Nearest known water body
Location of water body to which migration is occurring.
Approximate number of toads migrating

Information about the volunteer / group assisting the toad crossing

Is there an active group involved with helping the toads cross?
contact name and number for organiser of toad crossing
How many active volunteers
If there is no active group would you like to establish a crossing
Is your toad crossing registered with Froglife ?
Any other information about your group we may find useful

Please provide a sketch of the site

Please return this form to Laura Brook SxARG c/o Sussex Wildlife Trust Woods Mill, Henfield, West Sussex BN5 9SD Or email Laura brook @sussexwt.org.uk